

SCOE Teacher Induction Super Saturday

Saturday, August 25, 2018
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
10474 Mather Blvd

The SCOE Teacher Induction Team is pleased to offer 4 amazing workshops designed to meet the needs of all teachers. These workshops support ongoing professional development, the implementation of teachers' ILP goals, and or/support for mentors.

Creating a Classroom Culture for Successful Student Engagement (K-5)

9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Presenter: Brent Fullmer

Creating a Classroom Culture for Successful Student Engagement (6-12)

9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Presenter: Dr. Jim Huber

This workshop will give educators practical tools toward creating a positive learning environment. Teachers will receive:

- Steps to building appropriate relationships with students in order to create a positive and consistent approach to classroom culture/management
- Strategies for instruction that promotes engagement and limits disruption
- Approaches to re-directing students who are acting out
- De-escalation/safety protocols for extreme student behavior
- Strategies for getting parents and guardians involved to assist with student engagement and to help manage behavior

Participants can expect a “hands on workshop” and will leave with strategies and practices that can be immediately implemented in the classroom.

Both morning and afternoon workshops are identical in content. Interested elementary teachers should attend either the morning or afternoon session with Mr. Fullmer. Interested secondary teachers should attend either the morning or afternoon session with Dr. Huber.

Building Your Special Ed Toolbox: Setting up your school year for success

9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Presenter: Melanie Thomas

This training session will be geared towards Education Specialists and Case Managers looking to set up their school year for success. Teacher participants will receive beginning of year checklists, IEP checklists, example IEP coordination calendars and family introduction letters. The purpose of this workshop is a hands-on support session, please bring your laptop, SEIS login/caseload information, and any case management systems you have developed.

Behavior Basics for Ed Specialists - "Yes, I can. Yes, they will."

12:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Presenter: Kei Lucas

Come explore proactive strategies that support positive behavior change. Little steps can lead to leaps and bounds for our students. Accept the challenge...you can do it!!!

This workshop will support general education teachers as well.*

Workshops are free to SCOE Teacher Induction participants, $25 each workshop for all other participants

Teacher Induction participants and mentors register through scoeti.org “SCOE Events”

All other participants please register by emailing Karista Yeagley at kyeagley@scoe.net

Participants must register for individual workshops

For more information, contact Karista Yeagley (916) 228--2496.